

Department:	DERMATOLOGY
Vision	To establish advanced infrastructure & facilities for clinical dermatology, dermatological procedures, aesthetic dermatology and trichology etc. We aim to impart to the student along with academics, the ability to ethically innovate, mentor, participate and present papers and research in various National and International Conferences. Aim to start postgraduate courses in department
Mission	To provide state of the art patient services encompassing Dermatology, Venereology and Leprosy. To provide equality in education in the field of Dermatology, venereology and leprosy for undergraduate's students. Implementation of national health programs related to Leprosy, STD and HIV
Infrastructure and facilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Well-equipped procedure room for aesthetic and dermato- surgical procedures including RF cautery , well equipped opd room, and inpatient ward.
Services	The Department of Dermatology is a tertiary referral centre and provides outpatient/inpatient services for the full spectrum of dermatology diseases with a wide variety of amenities. Caters to average 120-150 daily OPD patients and emergency services24X7. Dedicated Leprosy centre under the aegis of NLEP and STI services with counselling facility.
Ongoing Research
Publications
Achievements	Participation in various national programs.

Awards
Faculty Details	1. Dr Suraj Wani M.D. DVL (Assistant Professor)
Sr. No	Designation	Name	Photograph	Qualification	Total Teaching Experience	Publications in last one year (2023-24)
1	Assistant Professor	Dr. Suraj Wani		MBBS, DDV, FCPS, M.D.(DVL)	1 YEAR	